David Engel's Historians of the Jews and the Holocaust is a timely reflection on the state of the field. Or, as it turns out, on the state of two fields, for he traces how Holocaust history and Jewish history have developed "as two separate realms, each with its own rules and practices, whose border is not readily crossed" (p. ix). Engel amasses evidence that shows how marginal the Holocaust has proven to be within the academic study of modern Jewish history. As others who have written about ...

The Holocaust industry has nothing to do with the Nazi holocaust. All it is, is an ideological weapon of Israel and its supporters to immunize Israel and its supporters from criticism. It has nothing to do with the actual event. These people don't care about the actual event. They don't care about the survivors. It's a manipulative public relations device, and I think nobody should have ...
